At My Wonders

*Wellington Pinheiro Santos e
José Gomes Brandão*

*When the day broke, I heard You say
That the sun don't rose upon the view.
At once your face left me get the meaning
And I saw the love among us to die.
All that I have been, You never say no*

I can't understand
The why of a lovelessness.

*All that You have done, I don't want to relive
They are things of the love, nothing else.
Ah! If I to feel that reach You in my lap
The life will be forever.
This already passed, You have not been anyplace.
Believe You, this love lives in myself.*

*But if You desire me
Only is try once again,
Who does it knows? We will live, maybe.
And if will not be thus good,
Give me the piece of me
Because now we draw to its close.*
